

BILL ANALYSIS

S.B. 974
By: Campbell

Committee Report (Unamended)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

When the Texas State University System was expanded and the legislature changed the name of Southwest Texas State University to Texas State University--San Marcos, it was with the goal that other universities in the system would similarly change their names to reflect the new system. However, the other universities are named for founding fathers of Texas including Sam Houston, Sul Ross, Mirabeau Lamar, and do not wish to change their universities' names. To complicate matters, Texas State University--San Marcos opened a campus in Round Rock. S.B. 974 reflects these realities and changes the statutory reference to Texas State University--San Marcos to Texas State University with campuses in San Marcos and Round Rock.

As proposed, S.B. 974 amends current law relating to the name of Texas State University--San Marcos.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.
